

Deirdre Ann Richardson

April 2, 1962 - January 23, 2022

Deirdre Ann Richardson was born on April 2, 1962 in Baltimore, MD to George and Doris Richardson. Deirdre was the fourth child of six. Dierdre was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Deirdre had five children, Tasheena, Niesha, Aaron, Rhonda and Reginald. At a young age she married her first love, Reginald Forbes Sr. Later in life, she found love again and married Harold L. Matthews.

Dierdre was a devoted, dedicated mother. Deirdre was known for her beautiful smile, her big heart, her sassy, tell it like it is, no filter attitude. She was known as the "Bea Gaddy" of Cherry Hill and "Aunt Dee" to many because of her generosity. Dee always gave anything that she could to anyone. She loved family gatherings which included, playing cards, cookouts, going to Myrtle Beach, going to parties with her sibling and dining out with her sister. Dee loved cooking, playing spades and her family and spending time with her family blasting her favorite music and family movie nights. Dee was known for her potato salad, fried apples, seafood salad and sweet potato pie.

Dierdre was a dedicated parent volunteer in Baltimore City Public Schools. She was a Girl Scout Manager, Parent on Patrol and an active member of the PTA. Deirdre also held a position as a Custodian for a few family cleaning services. Deirdre retired as Food Service Manager from Baltimore City Public Schools.

Deirdre was preceded in death by two grandchildren, Ameerah and Karis Nutt, mother, Doris Richardson, sisters, Kimberly and Cynthia, niece, Wanda Hill and nephew, Wayne Matthews, Jr.

On Sunday, January 23, 2022, Deirdre transitioned from earth to glory. She leaves to cherish her legacy: five children, Tasheena, Niesha (Dennis), Aaron (Niama), Rhonda and Reginald; 29 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren; father, George (Stepmother Barbara); two brothers, George and Sean (Donna); two sisters, Linda and Wanda; step-sister, Lisa; and two special children, Shameeka and De'Andre; devoted best friend, Warren; godson, Michael; goddaughter, Skyy; numerous other relatives and friends.
