

DeJon Jermaine Wagstaff

November 5, 1995 - January 13, 2016

Life Reflections

DeJon Jermaine Wagstaff, 20 of Glen Allen, entered eternal rest on Wednesday, January 13, 2016. He was born in Richmond, VA, on November 5, 1995 to LaTonya Wagstaff and Emanuel Walker. DeJon graduated from Henrico High School in 2013.

DeJon was known in the community as “Wag” “DJ Wag” or “YoungWagondatrack.” He started his music career at the age of 12 years old. He was truly dedicated to his music career. He was also a Redskins fan since the age of 7 years old. Wag was enthusiastic about building a successful career as a producer and DJ. He wanted to make a difference in Richmond music industry. He enjoyed giving parties because he loved to see people have a good time while he worked his magic on the turntables. When he had the opportunity, he loved traveling to Atlanta and LA. Through his promising career, he always had the support of his parents, family and friends. He was a well-mannered and thoughtful young man who had a great smile. He was also known as “teddy bear.” He will forever be missed.

DeJon aka Wag leaves to cherish his legacy of music and loving memories: devoted parents (LaTonya Wagstaff and Emanuel Walker), grandparents (Annie Coffey and Vance Walker), brother (Tyzay), sisters (Aryana & Zaneke), aunt & uncle (Pamela and Mark Coffey) great aunts (Delores, Barbara, Geraldine and Shani), great uncles (Leonard, James, Robert, Jimmy and Rodney), and a host of cousins, relative, close friends and extended family.

Tonya I'm so sorry for the loss of your son DeJon. May God continue to strengthen, comfort and keep you.

I'll Lend you for a little time a child of mine

by Edgar Guest

*"I'll lend you for a little time a child of mine," He said.
"For you to love the while he lives and mourn when he is dead,
"It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three.
"But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for me?
"He'll bring his charms to gladden you, but should his stay be brief,
"You'll have his lovely memories, as solace for your grief,
"I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return,
"But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.
"I've looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true,
"And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes I have selected you.
"Now will you give him all your love, nor think the labor vain,
"Nor hate me when I come to call to take him back again?
I fancied that I heard them say: Dear Lord, Thy will be done!
"For all the joy Thy child shall bring, the risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness: we'll love him while we may,
And for happiness we've known forever grateful stay.
"But should the angels call for him much sooner than we'd planned.
"We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand."*

“ My heart is truly bleeding right now!! I am so, so sorry Tonya. This is not how the story should go..Babies don't leave before their parents! I am sick to my stomach. I didn't know your son directly... But for years I saw him at the shop as you fixed my hair. You shared plessant stories with me about him.. All I know is you were an amazing mother!! You were a sweet young lady both middle and high school also!! My daughter knew him and she told me he was very mannerable and polite. He bothered no one! Sweetheart, may God continue to bless you and heal your wounds. May He give you peace and protect your mind today and all the days of your life!! I cant imagine what you must be feeling but please know I'm thinking of you and praying for you!!! Love, Tilithia Forbes
