January 18, 1914 - January 2, 2002

To God Be the Glory for giving us Mrs. Delcencia E. Mayo. She was born January 18, 1914 in Emporia, Virginia to the late James and Gertrude Avant. She departed this life on January 3, 2002 after an extended illness. Del, as her family and friends called her, graduated from the Greenville County Training School, Emporia, Virginia and later attended The Virginia Seminary and College in Lynchburg, Virginia and Morgan State University in Baltimore, Maryland. She received a nursing diploma from St. Paul Institute, Baltimore, Maryland on January 4, 1949. She worked as a nurse and supervisor at the Lincoln Nursing Home, worked in the family-owned convenience store on Herbert Street in Baltimore and taught briefly in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Del was united in holy matrimony to the late Robert L. Mayo, Sr., on November 14, 1942 until his death on July 23, 1999. To this union, one son was born. She was a faithful member of Whitestone Baptist Church. Del will be best remembered for her assuming nature and her good humor that frequently sprang from her quietness. She was a loyal and giving friend to all who knew her. To mourn her physical absence in their lives are her son, Robert Louis Mayo, Jr., daughter-in-law, Veyna T. Mayo; six grandchildren, Alicia Richardson, Marvin Mayo, Kevin Fleet, Cenita Robinson, Avant (Jibril) Mayo, Rashid Mayo; three sisters, Mrs. Clarine Person, Norfolk, Virginia; Mrs. Gertrude Choate, Portsmouth, Virginia, and Mrs. Wilma Logan, Norfolk, Virginia; two brothers-in-law, Mr. Edward Logan, Norfolk, Virginia and Mr. James Mayo, Irvington, New Jersey.
