

Delervie Nadine Olaiya

August 14, 1947 - February 22, 2004

We, as members of the family, bow our heads in humble submission to our Creator, who knows and does all things well with His answers to the great mysteries of life. Delervie Olaiya, born Delervie N. Fletcher on August 14, 1947 was the eldest of six children of the marriage of Hervie W. Fletcher, Sr. and the late Thelma Fletcher. She departed this life on February 22, 2004. She was educated in the Baltimore school system attending Benjamin Banneker Elementary, Booker T. Washington Junior High and Eastern High School. Education was her passion and she was always involved with several things at one time. While working full time she furthered her education by acquiring a Bachelor of Arts Degree at the University of Maryland in 1989, and Master of Arts Degree at the University of Baltimore School of Law in 2002. She taught at Harford Community College, helping others achieve their goals of getting a high school diploma. She had numerous jobs. Her most recent was as a real estate paralegal. Others were Notary Public, a Master in the Civil Court System, working for the NAACP under Kweisi Mfume, and several local, state and federal officials which included Parren J. Mitchell. She leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her memory: her son, Joseph Wells Jr.; daughter, Lisa Wells; granddaughter, Monique Pindell; brothers, Dannie and George Fletcher; two sisters, Clara Danette Scott and Mary Marie Dallas; one brother-in-law, Matthew Dallas; two sisters-in-law, Brenda and Patricia Fletcher; father, Hervie Fletcher Sr.; two half-sisters, Aisha and Latricia Fletcher. She has gone on to meet Christ with her late mother, Thelma and brother, Hervie

Jr. She also leaves a host of cousins, nephews, nieces and other relatives.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Joe, I just came across this obituary. I don't mean to open up old wounds, but my heart dropped when I read this obituary. I guess it was Gods plan for me to come across this. 'm still in Germantown Maryland. So, sorry to hear about your mom. I wish you and the family the best. I hope all is well despite the loss of your mom##imported-begin##Sarita Jeffries##imported-end##

“ May God's love, peace, and serenity abide in the hearts of Delervie's loved ones. She had a sweet, sweet spirit. Delervie's efforts to save our beloved Benjamin Banneker Elementary P.S. #113 will be treasured. Despite her most fervent attempt to preserve the Historical Landmark which was our dear #113, corrupt politics had the deck stacked to destroy yet another significant mark of achievement for the African American community. Her heart was in the right place amidst the decadent society in which we sojourn. She will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Lizzie Sessoms Johnson##imported-end##
