

Delia Tillery

August 15, 1912 - December 12, 2001

DELIA BEATRICE TILLERY, daughter of the late Frank and Rosie Moore, was born on August 15, 1912 in Scotland Neck, North Carolina. She departed this life on December 12, 2001 while sitting in her rocking chair next to her bedroom window. She received her education in the Halifax County Public Schools along with her six brothers and sisters. In 1932, she married Wade Tillery, and out of this union were three children, Charles, Frank and Rosie Mae (all now deceased). Delia's motto was "Do unto others as you'd have them do unto you." This was the way she lived her life and as a result, she was loved and respected by everyone whose life she touched. She spent most of her existence loving and rearing children. She went from "Trig," to Dee Dee, to Mom, to Grandma, to Great-Grandma and finally, "Granny." She leaves to mourn: her sister, Ellen Cotton of Scotland Neck, N.C., whose children she loved as her own; six grandchildren, Edward Tillery Jr., Sandra Bering, Frank Jr., Yvonne, Brenda and Janice; great-grandchildren, Betty Fox, Damien, Dyanna, Edward III, David Wade Tillery and Olivia Bering; many more great-grands, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
