

Delia Whitby

September 24, 1920 - January 4, 2010

DELIA WHITBY, better known as “Kitty” on “D”, daughter of the late Phillip and Nannie Terry Stokes, was born on September 24, 1920 in Farmsville, Virginia. After her battle with several illnesses she went to be with the Lord on Monday, January 4, 2010 at 2: 19 in the a.m. Delia accepted Christ into her life at Friendship Baptist Church in Turners Station under the leadership of Rev. Dockey Thomas where she was baptized and became a member of the Usher Board. She was an employee at Reads Drugstore for many years and retired from the Baltimore City Public School System. Delia will always be remembered for her hospitality, always willing to lend a helping hand. She will also be remembered for protecting her family. She was sweet as pie with a strong personality. Her presence will truly be missed. She met and married Norman Whitby in 1937. In this faithful union they raised eight children. Dorothy Mincy and Joyce Whitby preceded her in death. Surviving children are Marceline Whitby Pettit, Norman Whitby, Jr., Clarence Whitby, Thomas Whitby, Brenda Whitby Pryor and Beatrice Whitby Chapman. Sons- and daughters-in-law are Edward Pettit, Betty Puckett, Darnell Harper, Charles Pryor, Sr., and Tony Chapman, Sr. She has twenty-three grandchildren and a host of great-and great-great-grandchildren. Her siblings who have preceded her in death are David, James, Howard, Sam and Clarence Stokes, Rufus Hurt, Rosetta Jackson, Sally Shuler, Nannie Mae Mitchell, Margaret Johnson and Lucille Clemons. Surviving sibling, Eleanor Abraham; sister -in-law, Geneva Stokes preceded her in death. Surviving in laws are Rose Stokes,

Julia Stokes and Nathaniel Johnson.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Whitby. Please accept my sincere condolences on the passing of your loved one. May you find some comfort in knowing that Jehovah God has made us a promise that "very soon our enemy death will be swallowed up forever" And that those who have died will live again, John 5: 28, 29###imported-begin##Marilynn Wright###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11: 20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S.
