

Delilah L. Banks

August 29, 1921 - December 29, 2014

DELILAH LUDGOOD BANKS was born in York, SC on August 29, 1921 to Roy and Bessie Burris. She was the middle child of three daughters.

She moved to Stamford, CT as a young adult and throughout her life worked at various local factories all catering to the beauty and health care industry, such as Chesebrough Ponds and Northern Warren.

She met and married Robert Ludgood Sr. and out of this union two children were born, Bobby and Brenda. Delilah embraced her role as wife and mother, but also made time to put on her best dress, high heels, and red lipstick to go out on the town to enjoy a cocktail, or two, or three. She did her. She will always be remembered for her dynamic personality, and sense of style and humor which earned her the nickname of Lotta D, which in fact she continued to respond to just weeks before her passing.

Later in life she relocated to Baltimore and married for the second time.

After a lengthy illness, Delilah departed this life on December 29, 2014 at Future Care Courtland Nursing and Rehabilitation Center.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Harold Banks Jr.; her daughter, Brenda Gray; her sister, Margaret Noble; 5 grandchildren, 4 great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She was predeceased by a son, Robert Ludgood Jr.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family in the loss of your loved one . May the fond memories shared and the resurrection hope Jesus spoke of in the Bible at John 5 : 28,29 be a source of comfort doing this time of grief and pain.

Delores Allen - January 01, 2015 at 06:41 AM

“ *I read the obituary about the loss of your loved one and I extend my sincere condolences.
Death is truly an enemy but there is comfort in the Bible that “God will actually swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.” Isaiah 25:8
Hold onto the beautiful memories of Delilah and continue to have the love and support from family and friends.*

williams' Family - December 31, 2014 at 01:44 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
