

Delisa K. Rich

July 25, 1967 - August 19, 2006

DELILA KATRINA RICH, affectionately known as “Lisa and Abby”, was born on Sunday, July 25, 1967 to the late Thomas Rich, Sr. and Viola Anderson in Baltimore, Maryland. In the evening hour of Friday, August 18, 2006, in a intimate tone, Delisa chanted a verse of “Precious Lord” to her family. Very quietly, on Saturday, August 19, 2006, God in his infinite wisdom called Delisa from labor and pain to reward. Delisa gave her life to Christ at an early age. She was a member of the United Baptist Church in Baltimore, MD and ministered on their Women and Mass Choir when her health permitted. She really enjoyed worshipping with her family and friends and friends at the “U”. Delisa was gifted through song. Family and friends often called upon her to exalt one of her three favorite hymns, “Precious Lord”, “I Won’t Complain” and “Eyes On The Sparrow. Delisa attended Baltimore City public schools. She received her “GED” and later began her career path with children. Delisa was employed at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Patterson High School, The Woodbourne Center, The Lange Center and Arrow Project. She endured an inviting, loving, caring and divined spirit for children from her mom. She often sponsored activities for the youth such as; Easter and Back to School discos. She, also enjoyed taking them roller-skating and to church. In 2001, God called Delisa to find a caregiver for one of the youth she worked with at the Lange Center. She successfully completed this task; the youth and family are thankful for her. Delisa loved life and would let it show in her beautiful smile wherever she went. She had a very distinct voice and was often heard saying,

“You know what”, “I know that’s right”, “Stop playing”, “How bout that” and “Hey cuz’n. To know her was to love her and because of that she had numerous friends. If you knew her you was her cousin. She was truly devoted family person and would go out of her way to make her children and grandchildren happy. She enjoyed family gatherings, shopping, styling hair, dining out (seafood was her specialty), singing, but most of all dancing. She had such a unique way of dancing and would have a crowd around her on the dance floor at every occasion. Delisa’s dad, Thomas Rich, Sr., and her brother, Donald Foster preceded her in death. Delisa leaves a beloved family to exalt and cherish her memories: mother, Viola Anderson; five children, Sean, Tylisa, Shennika, Terryka and Andrea; three grandchildren, Sean, Jr., Shaunea and Darryl; one brother, Thomas Rich, Jr., six sisters, Evoria Foster, Marion Clinton, Celestine Young, Tia Rich, Caroline Richardson, all of Baltimore, and Yvonne Rich of Ohio; one brother-in-law, Gregory Clinton; three aunts, Emma Hatten, Gloria Hazel and Mary Davis, eleven nieces, fifteen nephews, twelve great nieces, ten great nephews, one Godchild, Diamond Dukes, Stepfather, Mr. Kee, stepmother, Vivian Rich, devoted family and friends of Shades of Beauty, a friend; Blanton Patterson and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that death is an enemy that will be done away with one day. There is hope for our loved ones who have died. The Bible gives the hope of them returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Acts 24:15, Revelation 21:4 and Matthew 5:5) May you receive much comfort from family, friends and these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that he "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

“ Delisa, Words could never express how much i will miss you. I will miss your smiling face, crazy thinking and of course the hook-up. every time i see one of your children i just want to brake down and cry. I Thank God for your Mother and Sisters because, I know that your children are going to be alright. Take your rest and I see you when I get there. I know you was in heaven smiling on us Thursday Morning, at the "U" because, your homegoing service was a great wittness of how you lived. Everybody Everywhere was talking about how wonderful it was.##imported-begin##Linwood Ingram##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Rich's ! I would like to express my sympathy to the Rich's in your lost of Delisa. Living today take great effort. Some many unforeseen things happen every second of a day. Comfort can be found with our heavenly father as 2 Cor.1:3 say in all our tribulations. Imagine the happiness that will result when dead loved ones are resurrected in the near future.I am looking forward to that and I know you all are too since the bible promise it. May all the cherish memories and happy times shared with Delisa stay close to your hearts. My fellow feeling , Lillian Crosby.###imported-begin##Lillian Crosby###imported-end##
