

Della Atkinson

May 4, 1954 - November 20, 2001

Della Atkinson, also known as “Miss Della”, was born on May 4, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She is the second oldest of four children born to Matilda Atkinson and the late Pate Atkinson. Della was educated in the Anne Arundel County Public Schools. She loved people. She was the first in her family to have her own transportation business. She was the first and only one to meet President Clinton personally. She was the first person hired at the new Arundel Mills Mall. She was the first in her family to be on CNN-TV. Della received her religious foundation at First Baptist Church. She recommitted her life to Christ during 1997. Though her illness took much out of her mentally and physically, she was able to recite the Lord’s Prayer in its entirety. Della loved the freedom of riding the Harley Davidson. Della had a free and independent spirit. She loved meeting people. Della will be dearly remembered by her two sons: Reginald, Decory, two daughters, Sherrie and Briana; grandson-Decory; mother, Matilda; two brothers, Pate and Chris; sister-in-law Cheryl; nephews, DeAndre and Pate; niece, Katrice; sister, Denetra; brother-in-law-Rodney; and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles and friends from Annapolis, Fort Meade and Baltimore. We as family and friends will take comfort in knowing she is spending time with our Heavenly Father, the Lord Jesus Christ. Our precious memories of her will be held in our hearts and minds forever.
