

Della Mae Harris

September 24, 1930 - January 8, 2005

Della Mae Harris, youngest child of Elizabeth Harris, was born on September 24, 1930 in Wilson, NC. She went home to be with the Lord on July 8, 2005. Della and her sister, Queen Esther Mills (deceased), were raised by their mother in North Carolina. The sisters moved to Baltimore to raise their families. Della's three children have preceded her in death. They were Gloria Jean Howard, Billy Mosley, and Johnny Mosley. Della married her late husband, Willie Harris, in 1978. Della worked hard, performing domestic work and nurturing young children. Her days were full of both triumph and challenge. Through it all she pressed forward and came to accept the Lord, Jesus Christ, as her personal Savior. She joined Little Ark Church where she worshiped and served faithfully for many years. She also served the Rose of Sharon Outreach Mission; recently joining the music ministry. She was not content to allow life just to pass her by; living life to its fullest, up until the day she departed. Just two days before her departure. She traveled to the Sights and Sounds Theater in Pennsylvania to see. "Psalms of David; Insight". With excitement, she shared this experience with her youngest great grandchild. Della was a member of the Retired and Senior Volunteer Program for over 20 years, the Waxter Center, and the Lanvale Towers Tenants Association. She served as a church usher, choir member, and Floor Captain at her place of residence, The Lanvale Towers. Della enjoyed activities and travel. She loved her family. She leaves to cherish her memory, grandsons, Douglas Arter, Jr., Derrick Arter, and Jarrod (Johnny) Mosley; granddaughter-in-law, (impending), Simona Parker; great grandchildren, Mercedes Adams and Asya Arter; niece, Dorothy Taylor; nephew, Calvin Mills; great niece, Diana Johnson; great nephew, John Taylor III; great-great nieces, Nicole and Morgan Johnson; in-laws; her extended Elder Plus and Lanvale Towers families; and a host of friends.
