

Della Pulley

February 11, 1918 - January 23, 2003

Della (Shatten) Pulley was born to Denie Jones and Jennie Dorsey on February 11, 1918 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life after a sudden illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Early in life she was married to Louis Pulley, and two children came from this marriage. Later in life, she extended her family with four more children with the late William Shatten. She was a wonderful mother, who loved all of her children dearly. She was always there no matter what the situation may have been. She was devoted, loving, caring, giving, kind and the sweetest mother anyone could ever ask for, and who always put her children first. She appreciated any and everything, it was always the thought, which counts. She was a great inspiration to all that knew her; she never had a negative thought about anyone. She never forgot anything; she always took care of herself. She always did everything for herself. She loved to read and tell stories. She never wore pants. She was the kindest, most thoughtful, sweetest, caring person you could ever know. She's THE WORLD'S GREATEST GRANDMOTHER. We will miss her so much. We have no one to call Grandma. We have shared her love our whole lives, but know she's gone; we really need you, but we know you're in a better place. Her grandchildren or great-grandchildren never did any wrong, especially Junior and Jerrod. She leaves to cherish her memory: five daughters and one son, Ruth Williams, Bernice Alston, Bessie Shatten, Della Jordan, Brenda (Cole) Garnett and Paul Paulham; one daughter-in-law, Laverne Paulham; three sons-in-law, Berkley

Alston, William Jordan and Clarence Garnett; twenty grandchildren, Tyrone, Karen, Calvin, Cynthia, Lanita, Curtis, Paula, Donnell, Wayne, Tammie, Wanda, James, Betina, Thomas, Lisa, Rena, Teresa, Toni (Michelle), Dwayne and Sabrina (Lyn-Lyn); thirty-three great-grandchildren, fifteen great-great grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To The Family Of Della Pulley: Please accept my deepest sympathy. Ms. Pulley will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her. Death is such an enemy of life, and although it is painful, we all have to face it. Here is a passage that I hope brings comfort to the family found at Acts 24:15, which states: "And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust." This is a very comforting passage that I find very comforting, because I know soon I will see my loved one again. I hope this passage bring solace to your family. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ To my Great Grandmother, although we never met, I can tell by the love your daughter Bernice, who is my Grandmother bestows upon me had to have gotten it from a very loving person. At this time I have to have my Grandfather Berkley type this for me. When we say our prayers, I can only say AMEN. However, when the prayers go up to you, and you hear a small child say AMEN you'll know it is from me. Your Great Grand Daughter Darrielle##imported-begin##Darrielle Lauryn Alston##imported-end##
