

Della S. Stewart

June 28, 1913 - September 10, 2011

DELLA S. STEWART, daughter of the late John and Mary Randall, was born on June 28, 1913 in Landis, Virginia. She departed this life on September 10, 2011 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Booker T. Washington. Upon completion of her education she became a professional seamstress and tailor. She was employed at Raleigh Sewing factory from which she retired from after thirty years of service.

She married Brightley Stewart and the two of them have been inseparable for sixty-two years.

Della was a very kind, quiet and humble person. She always had an eye for style and could sew almost anything, especially drapery.

She was a lifelong member at Wayland Baptist Church. Whenever Della needed to assist, she was their to lend a helping hand.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Brightley Stewart; sister-in-law Eleanor Stewart; two very close friends; Frank and Chris Mooring; a host of nieces, other relatives and friends
