

Della J. Williams

July 24, 1925 - June 12, 2014

Della J. Williams, daughter of the late Elliott Johnson and Sylvia Johnson was born on July 24, 1925 and she returned home to our Lord after a brief illness on June 12, 2014.

Della received her education at Wilson High School in Florence, SC where she was determined to be the very best that she could be. Following her graduation from high school, she worked at the McLeod Hospital in Florence, SC. Shortly thereafter, Della met Sgt. Lorenza R. Williams (deceased) of the 82nd Airborne Division stationed at Fort Bragg, NC. Soon afterward, they were married and their union resulted in four children: two daughters; Mary and Mildred (Millie) and two sons; Lorenza Jr. and James (deceased). The family moved to Japan for a two year military tour of duty. Upon their return to the United States, they made Baltimore, MD their home. Della was employed as a nurses' assistant at Mercy Hospital in Baltimore, MD for nineteen years. Della leaves to cherish her memory: three children; two daughters Mary E. Drew of Randallstown, MD (the late Peter) and L. Mildred (Millie) Godfrey (Willie) of Baltimore, MD, one son - Lorenza R. Williams, Jr. of Great Falls, MT; one son-in-law Willie Godfrey; four grandchildren - Marcia Hawkins, Danette Wiggins, Robert Wiggins and Willitia Godfrey; - seven great-grandchildren - Chamiah, Robert (Tré), Taylor, Taiwan, Raven, JayLa and Dashay; one great-great grandchild - Essence, a special niece and caregiver - District Elder Shirley Tisdale-Walker, a longtime and devoted friend - Carlillie Parker as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one, May the God of comfort be with you and your family to get through your grief and sorrow. God said at Isaiah 25:8. He will swallow up death forever., And the Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for God himself has spoken it. If you have any questions please go to www.Jw.org.
