

Deloga Chambers

December 27, 1955 - December 5, 2013

Deloga Chambers, Jr., son of Deloga, sr. and Elizabeth, was born on December 27, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on December 5, 2013.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Deloga joined the Air Force in the early 1970's.

In 1972 Deloga married Harriet and from this union their two children Antoine and Dinishea were born.

He was nicknamed "Crabby", by his mother, because he was "grouchy" as a young boy. Those who knew him never called him Deloga, they called him, "Crabby". When his siblings needed help with their homework they would go to "Crabby", because he was their "professor". He was an extremely neat and meticulous person, and was always the family jokester.

He received the Lord and was baptized in 1996 at Victory Outreach. There he found and fell in love with his wife Terri. They united in marriage on May 8, 1999.

In December 2012 God sent Deloga to his current church Redemption Church, where he worked and served the Lord. He was affectionately known as, "D.C." by his church family.

He was preceded in death by, his younger brother, Gregory Chambers.

He leaves his wife Terri and parents, Deloga sr. and Elizabeth his children, Antoine Chambers and Dinishea Revelle, four sisters, Cynthia Gaines, Jacqueline Chambers, Doreen Booker, and Aretha "Bunny" Davis, three brothers-in-law, James Gaines, John Chambers, Larry "Herman" Booker, Glenn Davis, Sr., one daughter-in-law, Angela Chambers, three grandchildren, Kristofer, Mekele, and Callie, nieces, nephews, and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Deloga. May Jehovah, the God of all comfort (2Corinthians1:3-4), continue to sustain you during this difficult time. May you find solace in John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 that talks about a time when there will be no more sickness or death and when our loved ones that have fallen asleep in death will be restored to perfect life in a paradise earth. With deepest sympathy.
