

Delois I. Graves

August 14, 1925 - March 18, 2014

DELOIS IRENE GRAVES, daughter of the late Henry and Edna Riley and wife of the late Arthur Jackson Graves, was born in North Carolina on August 14, 1925 and later moved to Baltimore, Maryland in the 1940s. She received her education in the North Carolina public school system. Also, she completed nursing school in Baltimore, Maryland. Delois worked thirty years as a Housing Inspector for Baltimore City, and after she retired (always being a workaholic), she worked at Sam's Club for a few years. "Lois", as she was affectionately known, was a loving, very intelligent and deeply devoted mother and grandmother. Lois enjoyed cooking big dinners for family and friends, especially her famous cakes and pies. She also loved her many Lincoln cars throughout her life. As a hobby, she enjoyed going to the casinos, watching sports, watching her favorite soaps, and always reading her monthly magazines. She was very dedicated to her faith in the Lord. After being ill for a few years, the good Lord called her home on March 18, 2014. She will be truly missed by her family and friends. Her memory will be with us forever. She leaves to cherish her memory: her caring daughter, Frances Mitchell; three caring sons, Jerome Graves, Michael Graves and Edward Graves. She was the mother of the late Carol Graves, James Graves, Jack Graves, Janis Graves and Lottie Graves. She was the sister of the late Edith Freeman and Henry Riley Jr. She also leaves sixteen granddaughters, nine grandsons, two nephews, two nieces, a host of great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

“ Our deepest condolences go out to the Grave family. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness we felt to hear the loss of Grandma Lois.

To the family:

*"May the stars carry your sadness away,
May the flowers fill your heart with beauty,
May hope forever wipe away your tears,
And, above all, may silence make you strong.*

.... "Unknown"

With Love,

“ I was saddened to hear of the death of Deloris Graves. I'm sure she will truly be missed. The bible says she was "living under special mightiness". Psalms 90:10 The bible promises that there will be a "resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous". John 5:28-29 Until then please draw comfort and hope from the scriptures. Please feel free to read more about this wonderful promise at our website jw.org.

“ I write you with heartfelt condolences at this sad time. I would like to share some words of comfort with you from the scriptures. At (Revelation 21:4) says " God will wipe out every tears from their eye's and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." God's promise refers to tears caused by suffering and sorrow. Jehovah will eliminate the real cause of death: sin inherited from Adam. (Romans 5:12). May Jehovah God of all comfort be with you.
