

Delores E. Adams

July 23, 1929 - May 7, 2013

DELORES ELIZABETH ADAMS was born July 23, 1929 to parents George T. and Gladys Adams. She departed this life on May 7, 2013 to be with her Lord and Savior.

Delores was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Douglass High School then proceeded to Morgan State College where she received her B.A. degree. Delores, being a champion of education, attended Howard University to obtain her Master's degree in Social Work. A strong and independent woman, she joined Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Being raised in a Christian family from birth led Delores in her adult life to join Metropolitan United Methodist Church. While at Metropolitan, one of her callings was to teach the word to the youth of the church, the Christian word, as a Sunday School teacher.

Preceding Delores in death were: her brother, Samuel Adams; and her sister, Regina Adams.

Delores is survived by: her brother, William Adams; and her sister, Florise White; nephews, a host other family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
