

Delores Bell Lockhart

October 15, 1929 - July 25, 2003

Delores B. Lockhart, one of three beautiful daughters of the late Elijah and Mary Awkward, was born on October 15, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Friday, July 25, 2003 after battling a lengthy illness over the last few years. She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. For many years she was employed at the former Horn and Horne restaurant in downtown Baltimore as a cook. She married the late Clarence Lockhart and out of this union, came five children. Clarence Jr., Norman, Bernadette, Gwendolyn and Patricia Lockhart. Mrs. Delores made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who came to know and love her. Her home and heart was always open. She leaves to mourn: her son, Norman and two daughters, Bernadette and Patricia Lockhart; one sister, Ophelia Gibbs and one brother-in-law, Norman Lockhart; five grandchildren (John, Corey, Angela, Shani and Daryl); six great-grandchildren. She also leaves many warm-hearted nieces, nephews, and a host relatives and close friends. Special remembrance to her sister Sonia Woodfolk; son, Clarence Lockhart Jr., and daughter, Gwendolyn Lockhart, who preceded Mrs. Delores in death.
