

Delores Bond

June 13, 1933 - August 2, 2014

Delores Burse Bond, the daughter of the late Mable Young Burse and Nathan Burse, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 13, 1933. She attended the public schools of Baltimore City where she participated in school activities. Delores Bond worked at Central Nursing Home and was a certified geriatric nurse and x-ray technician for numerous years. Following her tenure at Central Nursing Home, she then became a private geriatric nurse until her retirement. Many of her clients adored her and enjoyed being in her company. They loved her so much and they hated to see her leave. To show their appreciation, she was showered with gifts. She was united in holy matrimony to Benjamin James Bond II. With this union, there were 4 children born – Benjamin, Larry (Rico), Victoria, and Maldonado. On August 2, 2014, she quietly transitioned from this earthly life at the Manor Care Nursing Home. She was preceded in death by her son Larry Rico Bond; one sibling; Nathan Joseph Burse. She leaves to cherish her loving memories 3 devoted children, Benjamin (Annie) Bond III, Victoria Thorpe, and Maldonado Bond; 3 siblings, Mildred Maldonado of St Croix, Virgin Islands, Helen Lewis and Elaine Johnson all of Baltimore, Maryland; (9) grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
