

Delores C. Clemons

May 15, 1929 - July 23, 2009

DELORES C. CLEMONS, daughter of the late Frederick M. and Annie L. Rogers, was born on May 15, 1929 in Baltimore, Maryland. The Lord called her home on July 23, 2009, after many bouts of illnesses. Delores received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Her last job was with NSA at the Fort Meade Military Base. She was a member of the All Saints Church on Liberty Heights Avenue until her illness and later attended services at the Future Care Homewood Nursing Home, where she lived until her death. Delores married the former Albert Clemons and lived in New York, with him, until his death. She then returned to Baltimore. Delores had a calm spirit, sometimes, (smile) and made numerous friends wherever she went. She will truly be missed by everyone who knew her. She was a true friend and a devoted family member. She leaves to mourn: two stepsons, Joe and Michael Clemons; four stepdaughters, Brenda, Danny, Bernadette and Drusilla Clemons; two brothers, Kenneth and Herbert Rogers; a very special cousin, more like a sister, Martina Rawley; two half brothers, Alfred and Fred Rogers; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends

“ Hello my name is Kari I as a young person I knows how it feels to loose somebody close to you. Our hevenly father Jehovah helps us to appreciate that very soon 'all those in the memorial tombs will come out' (John 5:28,29) What a wonderful that will be!##imported-begin##kari jackson##imported-end##
