

Delores Davis

July 2, 1946 - December 19, 2018

DELORES DAVIS, daughter of the late Frank and Pearl Clark, was born on July 2, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 19, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education through Baltimore City Public Schools. Since the age of 15, Delores worked in many fields. She worked in the medical records department at University of Maryland Baltimore from 1975-1988 then as an office manager for Dr. Robert J. Williams and Dr. Lennard Richardson from 1989-2004. In 2004 she retired from her career due to illness. At an early age, she was baptized and dedicated her life to God. Delores was a loving person who took great pride and participation in the lives of her children and grandchildren. She believed in family first; creating any opportunity to bring family together, i.e. Family Flea Market. She was always helping and making people laugh and smile. Friends and family affectionately knew her as “Snook” or “Snookie.” Even when things seemed their darkest, she never missed an opportunity to share love and laughter (whether you asked for it or not).

She leaves to cherish her memory: her two daughters, Zelda Jessup (James Jessup) and Alyssa Brown; two brothers, Frank Shaheed (Ilene Shaheed) and Joseph “Bobby” Clark (Constance Clark); three sisters, Pearl Hopkins, Gloria Davis and Lucinda Sinkler; two sisters-in-law, Anne Clark (late Willie Clark) and Mary Clark (late Albert Clark); four grandchildren, Kaylin Jessup, Daniel Washington, Joshua Washington, and Luqman Taylor. She also leaves a special former son-in-law, Neil Washington; a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends whom she all affectionately loved and adored.
