

Delores Irene Daymon

January 25, 1940 - October 7, 2013

Delores Irene (Lane) Daymon, daughter of the late Mary Virginia (Lane) Jenkins and Harvey Lee Thompson, was born on January 25, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Monday, October 7, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

Delores was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. She worked at Saint Frances Academy for over fifteen years and truly enjoyed working there. After her retirement, she worked a short time as a cook for the Christian Brothers.

Delores loved her daughter and grandchildren with unconditional love. She loved watching western movies and also enjoyed music, her favorite song being, "You Are My Friend" by Patti LaBelle. During her life she had many friends and loved ones who will truly miss her.

Delores leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Thomas Daymon; her only daughter, Carlita Henley; three brothers, Ralph Lane (Myra), John Jenkins and Edward Jenkins; four sisters, Audrey Tilghman, Joyce Cruse, Gilda Patterson and Louise Brown; six grandchildren, Consuelo Hubbard, Brian Wingate, Donelle Wingate, Towanda Wingate, Donta Wingate and Tiarra Vincent; grandson-in-law, Jerry Hubbard; granddaughter-in-law, Jackie Wingate and Tarsha Wingate, twelve great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends including devoted friends, Ellen Jacobs and Kenneth Jackson.

“ In these troubled times, we all face storms. There are economic hardships, depression, failing health, the loss of a loved one in death - such tempests assail all of us at one time or another, and sometimes we cannot avoid them. It moves us to see persons who appear quite frail show surprising strength and endure such onslaughts. Often faith is a key (James 1:3). Another key is hope (1 Thessalonians 4:13), there is the hope of the resurrection (John 5: 28, 29; Acts 24:15). This knowledge gives us hope, that hope, in turn, gradually softens grief. This hope helps us to endure. You may find more encouraging Scriptures @ www.jw.org. May God continue to comfort your family in this stressful time of need.
