

Delores M. Ellis

August 10, 1928 - September 3, 2017

DELORES MAMIE ELLIS, daughter of the late Hattie and Eugene Stone Sr., was born on August 10, 1928 in Huntington, West Virginia. On Sunday, September 3, 2017, before the break of dawn, God sent His angels to the home of Delores to live with Him eternally.

She was preceded in death by her son, Michael Ellis; granddaughter, LaTanya Bates; sisters, Corraine Stone, Doretha Graham, Ernestine Stone, and brother, Eugene Stone Jr.

She was married to the late George W. Ellis which ended in divorce.

She received her education in Baltimore. She had a license in Cosmetology for doing hair. She worked several jobs to take care of her children. On May 31, 1978 she received her high school and with that doors opened.

She attained employment with the Department of Social Services as an Aide. She then decided to attend college to further her career, and with that was promoted to a case worker. She always stated how she enjoyed working with people and enjoyed going to work. She retired from D.S.S. in April 1991.

She enjoyed taking family trips, shopping and spending time with her grandchildren. She loved meeting and talking to people. She was a person if you needed help, she would do what she could to help. Delores was one of the kindest people you could ever meet, she opened her heart and home to many over the years.

She became a Catholic in 1963. She has been a member of St. Ambrose Catholic Church since 1979. She was an usher and would volunteer to help with prayer breakfast, count money, or what every was needed. She loved reading her scripture every morning and when she could no longer read she would listen from the TV.

Delores was a woman of STRENGTH and DETERMINATION. She could always make you smile.

She leaves to cherish her memory; daughter, Ernestine Senior; two sons, Dwayne Ellis and Winston Ellis; sister, Rosalita Stone; son-in-law, Larry Senior I; daughter-in-law; Usa Ellis; grandchildren; Robin, Pete, Jakki, Alicia, Michael, Ferinda, Larry II, and Sean; great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, nieces, nephews, and other relatives.
