

Delores Gooden

August 21, 1932 - May 18, 2014

On Sunday, May 19, 2014, DELORES P. GOODEN's earthly life came to quiet and peaceful end. Delores was the eldest daughter of the late Roy and Viola Vandiver. She was born on August 21, 1932 in Washington, D.C. Delores joined the church at an early age and was a member of Morning Star Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. She later became a member of Bible Way Free Will Baptist Church also in Baltimore. Delores received her education from the Baltimore City School System.

At a young age she met and married the late Nathaniel Parsons. From this union they had a daughter, Naomi Parsons Richardson. Delores later met and married James T. Gooden and remained married for fifty years until his death.

Delores was a very industrious worker and held numerous jobs during the course of her lifetime. Housewold Bakery, Raleigh Clothing Factory, Becton Dickerson, Citi Bank and the Forest Park Senior Center.

Delores' sense of humor, wittiness, and big heart made her numerous friends wherever she went. She will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter, Naomi Richardson (Baltimore); one step-daughter, Evelyn Bookhart (Philadelphia, Pa); five grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren; one sister, Viola Smith (Chicago, III.), and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
