

Delores Martha Holmes

March 7, 1940 - February 5, 2011

DELORES M. HOLMES, daughter of Elizabeth Staley and the late Harold Staley was born on March 7, 1940 in Baltimore, Maryland. She transitioned this life on February 5, 2011 after a lengthy illness surrounded by family.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School. Her love of personal care and beauty products influenced her to further her education and become a certified cosmetologist. She enjoyed and pursued this career for over forty years.

Delores loved to debate on various subject including politics, education and current events. This affinity led her to engage in deliberate conversations and personal writings that clearly expressed her opinions.

A faithful servant of the Lord, Delores enjoyed being a member of St. Michael and All Angels Church. She loved attending Bible Study and was famous for bringing the donuts to church.

Delores leaves to cherish her memory: a loving and devoted husband, Dennis Sr.; two children, Denis Jr. and Dana Blazek; mother, Elizabeth and John; grandson-in-law, Stevie Thompson; three great-grandchildren, Johnathan, Joshua and Mikiayel; two aunts, Hortense Grant and Peggy Beckett; uncle, Joseph Beckett; three nieces, Wendy Askew, Kelli Younger and Leah Marvin; devoted cousin, Angela Seaton; and a host of other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her sisters, Glorianne Stanley-Wiltz.
