

Delores W Jackson

January 26, 1944 - January 16, 2023

DELORES WALKER JACKSON was born to the late Carolina Walker and Corine Walker on January 26, 1944, in Baltimore, Maryland. She transitioned to her eternal rest on January 16, 2023, after a brief illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System, where she graduated from Carver High School. She was the Class of 1962 valedictorian. She graduated from Morgan State College, where she received a Certificate of Service Excellence in developing the automation of COBRA System. In addition, Delores was trained and certified in data analysis and computer programming by taking numerous business courses that led to her career at MedStar Human Resources, where she retired after 25 years of dedicated service.

In 1969, she married Nathaniel Jackson the love of her life. From this union one child Michael Nathaniel Jackson was born.

Delores received Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age and attended church faithfully. She enjoyed reading books, Bible scriptures and as well as devotional readings. She always traveled with her Kindle.

She enjoyed cooking and baking. Her favorite specialties were Lemon cake, Coconut cake, German Chocolate cake, Jewish Apple cake and Black Bottom cake.

Delores had a profound sense of humor. She was compassionate and devoted to her family, friends, and colleagues. She also, enjoyed shopping, traveling, and watching television. She was also known as a good listener.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Nathaniel Jackson, her mother Corine Saunders, her brothers Earl Lemon, John W. Saunders, Jr. and brother-in-law Elroy A. Blue, Sr.

Delores leaves to cherish her precious memories: her son Michael N. Jackson (Georese Freeland); sister, Elizabeth L. Blue; two brothers, Leon Saunders (Linda), Ricardo V. Alston; grandchildren Cameron Jackson, Jade Jackson, Peyton Jackson, Ryan Jackson, Zoe Jackson, and Melvin Curry, Jr.; a host of nephews, nieces and other relatives, and friends.

“ She is my favorite aunt. She married my uncle but you would never know she didn't know me from birth. She always had my back during all my trials and tribulations. Even my sons know how much she means to me. I will miss her dearly but she will always be in my heart. Love you Auntie.
