

Delores E. Johnson

April 2, 1938 - September 29, 2018

DELORES ELLEN JOHNSON was born on April 2, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Elizabeth Morris and Oliver Forrester. She departed this life on September 29, 2018.

Delores was fondly known as "Betty Lou". She received her education from St. Peter Claver. In her childhood years she enjoyed dancing and track and field. After completing her education she was a bar maid for Little Joes and the Odyssey. She later went back to school to become a certified nursing aid where she worked in nursing homes and did private duty nursing.

After her retirement she moved on Talbot Road where met Michele Jackson and April Jackson who became family.

Betty Lou enjoyed trips to Walgreens and Burger King and spending time with her great granddaughter, Akira.

Betty Lou was feisty with a big heart and did not have a problem speaking her mind and letting you know how she felt. Her favorite saying during her final months was, "I'm the captain of this ship and you all are just the crew."

In her final days she was taken care of by her only surviving and devoted son, Daryl.

She is preceded in death by: her daughter, Gwendolyn Forrester, her son, Darrin Johnson, and her grandson Eric Forrester.

Betty Lou leaves to cherish her memory: son, Daryl Johnson; grandchildren, Kawanda Kingwood, Tyiesha Johnson, Darrin G. Johnson Jr.; great-grandchildren, Akira Harper, Aubree James, and Rian James; a special cousin, Pauline Williams-Blackwell; goddaughter, Linda Tucker; devoted friends Michele Jackson and April Jackson and a host relatives and friends.
