

Delores L. Minor

August 9, 1953 - March 7, 2007

DELORES FAE MINOR, daughter of the late Pastor Aubrey F. Minor and late Eseline Minor, was born August 9, 1953 in Bowlings Green, Virginia. Delores went home to be with the Lord on Wednesday, March 7, 2007 at home surrounded by family members who cared for her during her illness. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She always had a special place in her heart for children and often volunteered her services at the Robert W. Coleman Elementary School where her son attended. Delores invited Christ into her life at an early age and she loved the Lord with all her heart and soul. Her purpose in life was to please God. Delores' love for children often moved her to making sure that the children in her family had whatever they needed for school. She was a faithful member for more than twenty years at the Minor's Temple Church of God in Christ where she served as a Sunday school teacher for all ages and a Missionary. After the death of her father, she joined Prayer Tabernacle Holiness Church under the Pastorate of Elder Eva Mae Bryant. She later joined the Greater Faith Baptist Church under the Pastorate of Rev. Dr. Leah E. White. Her illness caused her to slow down but her heart continued to beat with a burning love for Christ and her family. She leaves to celebrate her life: her dear son, Aubrey Jamal Minor; five sisters, Barbara, Geraldine, Doris, Louise and Darlene; two brothers, Franklin and Michael; three aunts, Margaret, Christine and Thelma; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Two sisters preceded her in death, Dorothy and Mary.

“ I would like to extend my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Minor. Death is truly a heartbreaking situation that is so hard to come to grips with. Noone wants to have their loved ones depart from them. To not be able to see them or talk them anymore is truly devastating. Jehovah God and his son Jesus are very much aware of the deep grief we go through when someone we love dies, and Jehovah's purpose is to wipe those tears of sorrow from our eyes by restoring life back to our loved ones by means of a resurrection. The Apostle Paul himself put faith in that hope. He said at Acts 24\15, \And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection. John 5:28,29 also says, \Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.\ May the thought of seeing your loved one again bring you some comfort, as well as your cherished memories, which death can never erase.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ DEAR FAMILY, WHILE TRYING TO COPE WITH THE LOSS OF YOUR LOVED ONE, MAY YOU FIND COMFORT FROM GOD'S WORD THE BIBLE. SOON THE ENEMY DEATH WILL BE GONE FOREVER. HOW HAPPY WE ARE TO KNOW THAT ALMIGHTY GOD HAS A YEARNING TO UNDUE ALL THAT DEATH HAS CAUSED. (ISAIAH 25:8 & JOB 14:14,15) MAY YOU HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE RESURRECTION HOPE AND OF SEEING YOUR LOVED ONE AGAIN. (ACTS 24:15)###imported-begin###MICHELLE###imported-end###

“ My sincerest condolences are extended to the family and friends of Ms. Minor. Death is a sad occasion, and no one looks forward to it. A scripture of encouragement is found at John 5:28,29 which says "...all those in the memorial tombs will be resurrected..." It is truly heartwarming to learn that God and his Son Jesus will bring dead loved ones back to life. May this too be a source of encouragement to you all.###imported-begin###Brittany A###imported-end###
