

Delores Laverna Corbin

May 7, 1942 - October 19, 2005

DELORES LAVERNA CORBIN passed peacefully from her earthly home into God's Loving Arms on Wednesday, October 19, 2005. She was one of three children born on May 7, 1942 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late Joseph Scott and Armelia Craft. In 1946 she migrated to Glen Burnie, Maryland. As a young child, Delores united with the First Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church and was baptized under the leadership of the late Bishop Leo Caesar. During her years at First Mt. Olive she served on the Nurses Ministry. Delores's most favorite spiritual song was "Going up To Yonder". She was educated in the Anne Arundel County Public School System, where she graduated from Bates High School in 1961. Later, she earned her Associates Degree from the Baltimore City Community College and continued her educational pursuits at Coppin State University. Delores was employed at the Charles Hickey School where she counseled troubled young boys. Later switching careers working as a home health nurse for several years until two weeks before her death. She enjoyed being a nurse and helping others obtain optimal health. Delores's family was first and foremost in her life. She was loving, caring, and a devoted mother to her children and grandchildren. She was a good and sincere friend to all who knew her. She always enjoyed spending time with family members and close friends and in-house gardening. Delores leaves to cherish her memories: a son, Donnel Hakim Scott, three daughters, Sherdina Claiborne, Sharita A. Adgerson, and Donya V. Corbin; a Godson, Joseph Mollett III; a brother, Joseph Scott, a daughter-in-law, Terra R. Scott; a sister-in-law, Bertha

Scott; five grandchildren, Dysheena Tyjuantel, LaShonta, Amir and Ishma'il; her adopted family, mother, Willie Nixon; sisters, Patricia, Sharon, Margie and Alexis; brother Garland; three nephews, Folker, Joel and Kareem; two cousins, Loretta and Debbie; a special friend; Jerome Hawkins and a host of other relatives and friends who loved her and appreciated her life.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. May you find much comfort in the hope found at John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." And may you stay close to "The Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort."- 2 Corinthians 1:3##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Tina, Donnell, Sherdina: At John 5:28,29 Jesus said in part "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...". This scripture points to a hope of a resurrection. A standing up from death to life. It gives hope that one day many who have died will come to life again. May this hope bring you comfort always.
