

Delores Murphy

January 6, 1934 - March 10, 2011

DELORES MURPHY, daughter of the late Pete Roberson and Gladys Williams, was born on January 6, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Delores was educated in the Baltimore City Public School Systems. She was baptized at an early age and her spiritual journey and faith led her to become a member of the Wayland Baptist Church.

Delores married at a young age to Ellis Murphy and from this union six children were born, Pamela, Duane Andre, Gary Ellis, Anthony Broderick, Renard and Angela Bonita. This marriage later ended in a divorce; however, Delores and Ellis remained close friends.

Delores was the life of the party in her early years and loved to have a good time. She made numerous friends wherever she went. She had a hardy laugh that could be heard from any crowd.

Delores was affectionately known as "Murp," "Ma Murph" or "Miss Murphy" Miss Murphy's house was the house you could always find the neighbor's children, even if her own were not there. This was because she always concerned about people. "Grandma" was especially concerned and cared for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Until they are reunited, she leaves: her devoted children, Pamela Harris and Renard Murphy; beloved son-in-law, Albert N. Harris; loving grandchildren, Nicole Lynette McDonald, Duane Murphy, Jr., Sharise Dobbins, Tenisha Murphy, Chele Murphy, Lakisha Dobbins, Tyrone Daniels, Rochelle Williams, Dasmin Murphy, Destiny Murphy and Davon Taylor; and a host of great-grandchildren, other family and friends.
