

Delores F. Peaks

March 21, 1949 - February 11, 2023

Delores Francis Peaks born March 21, 1949 was born to the late Bessie (Mickey) and the late Benjamin Peaks. She died on the same as one of her favorite singers Whitney Houston, on the eleventh day of February 2023 (eleven years later than Whitney).

Delores graduated from Carver High School in 1968.

Delores was never married, just remained faithfully committed to her high school sweetheart, Sollie Whitfield, Jr.

She was employed in environmental services at several Baltimore Health facilities, such as Johns Hopkins, Stella Maris, Union Memorial And Broadway Services before changing careers to a Teacher's aide at Dayspring Head Start Center of Harford Heights Annex.

Delores volunteered at the Johns Hopkins with over 214 hours and over 981 hours of service in the Foster Grandparents Program of family and Children's Services. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends She especially enjoyed going to her sister Bonnie's house and being with her niece Shaneeka. Although, she loved jewelry, Delores never had her ears pierced.

Delores shared the same birthday with two of her sisters, Dorothy and the late

Bernice Truxon.

Delores was preceded in death by parents, Benjamin and Bessie (Mickey) Peaks, brother, Ernest peaks, sisters, Bernice Truxon and Vernell Scott and the love of her life, Sollie Whitfield, Jr.

Delores leaves to cherish her memory two children son Sollie Whitfield, (wife Leslie); daughter Cantrice Whitfield; four grandchildren, Joyce Whitfield, Tierra Fowlkes, Annie Whitfield and Karter; three sisters Dorothy Mickey. Yvonne Peaks and Doris Peaks; brother Benjamin L. Peaks; brother-in-law, Barry Truxon; three God daughters Lakisha Brown-Smith, Erica Inabinett and Shaniqua Johnson; God-son, Anthony Griffin; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. A special thank you to her hairdresser, (Missy) Malissa Gibson, and a special thanks to her Home Healthcare Team, Tamica Ballou and Shana Ballou. Thank you so very much! Delores will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her.
