“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Isaiah 26:19 gives an encouraging hope- "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up." The Bible teaches that promise will take place in a peaceful new world with no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. {Revelation 21:3-5, 2 Peter 3:13} May you and your family receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises from the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ May Jehovah God, our loving heavenly father, comfort you during your time of deep sorrow. Unfortunately, death is a harsh reality of this life at present. But family know that this was not God's purpose for us; this pain and sorrow we go through in this life. Death is truly our worst enemy, and at 1st Corinthians 15:26 God promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing. We all desire everlasting life for ourselves and our loved ones, and God will fulfill that desire as well. At John 3:16 it says, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. Those who have already died will receive these blessings as well, because the bible lets us know at Daniel 12:2, There will be many of those asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up. May you find much comfort from God's word, the bible, and may your cherished memories help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
