

Delores Ruth Renteria

October 12, 1949 - May 6, 2002

Delores Ruth Renteria entered this life on October 12, 1949. She was born to the late Lula Mae and Carlos Renteria. Delores was called home on May 26, 2002. Delores was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and attended the Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. Everyone who knew Delores found her to be extremely friendly and loving lady who always helped anyone that she could. She was a devoted mother and grandmother. One of her favorite activities was to volunteer for the Baltimore City Public Schools helping out as a substitute teacher and P.T.A. One thing Delores truly loved was singing. She was a member of the New Baptist Church under the pastorship of the late Rev. Hardy. Not only will she also be missed, praise God that she was able to teach her two daughters the wonderful words to many beautiful sacred songs that they shall never forget. God also instilled in her daughters the wonderful talent of singing. She leaves to cherish loving memories: two daughters, Charlotte Bernice Renteria and Charlene Delores Smith; one son-in-law, Wilmont Francis Smith II; two sisters, Bernice Davis and Lelar Davis and won brother, Robert Boyd; sister-in-law, Shirley Boyd; aunt, Geneva Hurt; and an uncle, Luther Williams. She is also survived by: seven grandchildren, Charnita, Jarmarr, Jarmaine, Wilmont, Tu'ere, Damali and Keosha; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
