Maxine met and fell in love with Lemuel Walston the love of her life her soulmate. From this union they raised seven lovely children. Maxine was well loved and will be truly missed by the many lives she touched. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and friend.

Maxine enjoyed fashion & designing maker her own creations, the Diva that she was! She love to dance and listen to her music, especially her & Lemuel favorite song "Don't Worry" by Bone Thugs & Harmony. Although she didn't attend church every Sunday. She was a praying warrior and God truly had her heart. Her biggest accomplishment was raising seven children and making sure all of them graduated from high school. The bigger challenge was raising four girls. We are the reflection for her and made sure she was, 'Our Mother'. We toot her horn for her and made sure she received her flowers while she was here.

“ Sending my condolences to the family of Ms. Watson. During this difficult time, we can take courage in the scripture recorded in Isaiah 33:24 that soon "no resident will say I am sick", What a wonderful promise from God to look forward too!
