

Delores Elizabeth Watkins

March 27, 1936 - December 18, 2012

Delores Elizabeth Watkins, the youngest daughter of the late Samuel and Rita Watkins was born on March 27, 1936. She departed this life after brief illness.

She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School Systems Delores or Lois, as she known as always had a love for people. She loved working as a bar maid in numerous bars around the city of Baltimore. Let her tell you there was not a bar in Baltimore that she did not work for.

Delores was the last of sixteen (16) children. She enjoyed family and spending time with her grandchildren and great -grandchildren, always making sure they had enough to eat. She loving sharing stories about Pennsylvania Avenue and her times in the local bars with her nieces and nephews during their visits. When she wasn't home looking at her western, she loved visiting the the Greenmount Avenue Corridor where everyone knew her as Aunt Lois.

She leaves mourn, 2 daughters, Nancy Roye and Dulcy Coffey (who preceded her in death), 3 sons James Rogers, Norman Coffey and Guy Coffey (who also preceded her in death), 4 grandchildren, Deanna Crowder, Tia Lipscomb, Ricky Hardy and Guy Coffey, Jr. 8 great-grandchildren 3 sisters-in-laws, nieces, nephews and a host of family and friends.

She said no last farewell, she said goodbye to none. Her loving heart just ceased to beat, her stay on earth was done. In our hearts your memory lingers of ways tender, fond and true. There will not be a day that we will think of you, Sleep on Lois, go ahead and rest. We love you, but God loves you best!

Loving Submitted, Your Children Grandchildren

Aunt Lois, we love you and will miss you very much, You are gone but not forgotten.

“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiates 3:11. “Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts.”

Peggy Land - December 23, 2012 at 08:41 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
