

Deloris R. H. Dade

December 19, 1956 - June 14, 2011

DeLORIS RENEE DADE, affectionately known as “ Little DeLoris” to her family and close friends, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 15, 1956. “ Little DeLoris” was the daughter of Augustus Henry and DeLoris Henry, and was the mother of Terry Dade.

DeLoris was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and attended Howard University in Washington, DC for two years. While in Washington, she worked in a variety of positions in both the federal government and private industry.

Due to her illness, DeLoris relocated to Baltimore where she was blessed with the support of her mother and other family members. Living in her apartment at the inner harbor and being a part of that community was a great source of pleasure for DeLoris.

DeLoris and her Mon were very close. She enjoyed short walks to Mom's apartment, just a few blocks away. Searching for coupons, bargain shopping and cooking were among her favorite things to do.

Deloris loved her family deeply. She never forgot to acknowledge a birthday, holiday or special occasion with a lively card or an uplifting phone call.

Left to cherish her memory are: her son, Terry; mother, DeLoris; father Augustus; brother, Christopher; sister, Lisa; godmother, Odessa; aunt, Joyce, Celeste and Delores; cousins, Iris, Herman, Bernard, Steve, Alvin, Jeannette and Linda.

DeLoris will continue to live in the hearts of all who loved her so dearly.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
