“ Dear family and friends of Deloris, I am very sorry to hear about the lost of your loved one. Death is never an easy thing to go through because this is not what our creator had planed for us. You can find comfort in knowing that the bible talks of a time when death, sickness, and pain will be a thing of the past. Rev 21:3,4 ##imported-begin##A. Jones##imported-end##

“ *I'm sorry to hear about your loss. I would like to express the Bible's hope for the future. At John 5:28,29, Jesus spoke about the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Bible speaks about a resurrection of the dead. “ It has been almost a year since the passing of your dear loved one. Time marches on, but the memory and sorrow that comes along with losing someone so dear does not cease. Jesus knew of the sadness one feels when losing a loved one. He was moved to tears in the case of Lazarus. However, God's word has comforting power and offers hope that will and can sustain us right down to the end. Jehovah is indeed a "God of Comfort" (2Corinthians 1:4)##imported-begin##Douglas##imported-end##

“ May you find comfort and strength in the loving care of our heavenly father as you mourn the passing of your loved one. 1st Peter 5,7. He has a wonderful purpose to end all sickness, all violence, all pain, and death; and to bring about a peaceful new world. 2nd Peter 3,13 tells us. "But there are new heavens and a new earth which we are awaiting, according to his promise, and in these righteousness is to dwell. Imagine a world of peaceful conditions without the threat of death from any source. That is Jehovah's promise made through the shed blood of his son, Jesus Christ. And it's also his purpose that the dead share in this joy by being resurrected back to life. At John 11,25 Jesus said this: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life. Along with that promise God tells us at Rev 21,4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. May these scriptures help to comfort you, and help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
