“ "If a man dies, can he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. (Job 14:14) Perhaps you to have wondered about this. How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible? The Bible makes this promise "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." (Isaiah 26"19) Almighty God assures us that if we take in accurate knowledge of him and his son, Christ Jesus and live by bible standards, we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again in the near future where we will live on a paradise earth forever. (Psalm 37:29) I hope this has brought you a measure of comfort and I pray that you seek to know what the bible really teaches about this wonderful time.

“ I want to express my sorrow over the loss of your loved one. Losing a loved one is something we all wish we never had to go through. Thankfully, within his word the Bible, God promises us that soon "death will be no more". He also gives us the hope of seeing our loved ones who have already fallen asleep in death (Revelation 21:3,4 John 5:28,29). Again my condolences.

“ Dear family, I am so sorry that your loved one passed away. Death is such a terrible blow to a family, because it was never God's original purpose for us. When Jehovah created Adam there was only one circumstance that could lead to his death and that is found in the Bible at Genesis 2:16,17 which says, And Jehovah God also laid this command upon the man: From every tree of the garden you may eat to satisfaction. But as for the tree of the knowledge of good and bad you must not eat from it, for in the day you eat from it you will positively die. Sadly, Adam chose to disobey, and he brought sickness and death to all of his offspring. Romans 5:12 brings this our plainly: it reads: That is why, just as through one man(Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned.” So simply put, sin is the cause of death. But God did not leave us or hold us responsible for what Adam and Eve did, but he promises that if we exercise faith in his Son, Jesus, then we put ourselves in line for everlasting life. John 3:16. By means of the resurrection, we have the hope of seeing our dead loved ones come to life again. Please read John 5:28,29 in your copy of the Bible. I pray that the hope of the resurrection brings you much comfort and a sure hope for the future. Again, my deepest sympathy.
