“ I tended to Delvin as his nurse while he was under my care recently. I enjoyed the many conversations with him and I had the pleasure during these conversations to give him the gospel of Jesus Christ. Delvin was a very intelligent, insightful person to talk to . He is one of the very few I will personally miss, but my consolation is with I last talked to Delvin I thank the Lord I answered all his objections and answers and he made it clear to me he understood the Gospel.
