

DeMari Washington

September 13, 2013 - June 1, 2015

DEMARI SLY ARTEZ WASHINGTON, beloved son of Sylvester Washington Jr. and Latribia Brown, was born on September 13, 2013 in Rosedale, Maryland at Franklin Square Hospital. He received his wings to heaven on June 1, 2015. He was known by Mari or Fatman by his family and always had a smile on his face. He loved music, dancing, playing with toys and had a fascination with bikes and cars. Mari enjoyed watching Mickey Mouse Clubhouse and he would always join in with his cousin when they sang the baby love song. Sitting on the potty and in his car seat were his least favorite things to do but he enjoyed taking a bath and was most comfortable just walking around in a diaper. If Mari got a hold of your phone you would be sure to find a selfie or two. Mari loved animals and you would often find him sitting on the back of the family dog. He enjoyed eating all sorts of food and you always knew when his favorite sipping cup was empty cause he would always throw it across the room. Although Demari left his family too soon he has left a many memories for his family to cherish. He leaves lasting and loving memories with his two brothers Deaveon Washington and Sylvester Washington III, paternal grandparents Sylvester Washington Sr and Michelle Washington, maternal grandmother Keisha Garvin, maternal grandfather Corey Washington (deceased)), four aunts Taniya Garvin, Ah'Quasia Grooms, Ashley Washington, Dominique Washington- white and a host of cousins, family and friends.
