

Demetrius Williams

January 16, 1946 - January 5, 2006

DEMETRIUS WILLIAMS, son of the late George Harrison and Noble Notice, was born on January 16, 1946 in Wake County, N.C. He was called home to be with the Lord, January 5, 2006. He received his elementary education in the public schools of Durham N.C. At the age of thirteen, he moved to Baltimore City where he then received his secondary education. Demetrius, better known to his family and friends as "Dennis," was a person of many talents. He held various odd jobs throughout the City. One of his favorite positions was to provide instructions and tips to local golf pros. Some of his other interests were singing, dancing, playing drums, and bongos. You haven't been properly entertained, unless you heard and saw him in action playing spoons, and performing the "handbone." Dennis was baptized at an early age in Durham, N.C., where he attended church with his Grandma Golya. He also occasionally attended the First United Church under the leadership of Bishop Saunders. He eventually gave his life to Christ, and often spoke of his love for the Lord. In 1966, he married Sarah Jane (McKinnon) Hatchet, and out of this union two children were born, Tarsha and Monica. Dennis made numerous friends wherever he went, and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was affectionately loved and cared for during his last years by Ms. Michelle Lawson and family in partnership with Chesapeake Connections. Dennis leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters, Tarsha Moreno and Monica Williams; stepdaughter, Lisa Roberson; son-in-law, Kenny Agu; two sisters, Barbara Thompson and Hollie Hunter Dowery; brother-in-law, Daryle

Dowery; two uncles, Marvin Williams and Larry Williams; aunt, Mert Johnson; seven grandchildren, Keosha, Demetrious, Brittney, Amber, Christen, Treyvon, and Chance; two great-grandchildren, MichŽ and KechŽ; niece, Chris; nephews, JayIn Dowery and Jonathan Tiller; cousin, Donnie; mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Reed; and ex-wife, Sarah Hatchet; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
