

Demond J. Gladney Jr.

September 15, 1993 - June 15, 2023

Demond Jermaine Gladney, Jr. was born in Baltimore, MD., on September 15, 1993 to Demond Jermaine Gladney Sr., and the late Mendiki Quila Gladney.

He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from W.E.B. Dubois High School in 2013. As a boy, Demond enjoyed playing sports, particularly football, but his true passion was always his family.

Demond was the eldest of five, and very protective of his younger siblings. He also enjoyed gaming and music, whether it be driving around to a good song, or writing a verse or two with friends, in fun.

Demond was a son, brother, nephew and grandson, but most importantly he was a father. He and Shamayya Carter welcomed their daughter, Da'Miyah Gladney on May 7, 2018. From the moment she entered the world, she became his everything.

Mond, as he was affectionately known as an early riser, and you could count on him to start his day with the biggest bowl in the kitchen, full of Captain Crunch cereal. He was a dedicated worker and was always looking for a new way to perfect his craft. Mond really appreciated the value of a dollar, and to know him was to know he certainly knew how to hold on to one. Unless there was an opportunity to add to his enormous shoe collection of course!

Though naturally quiet and reserved, his true personality and lightheartedness was always on display in the presence of his loved ones. In addition to being family orientated, Demond was a loyal friend and will truly be missed by all grace with his love and companionship.

His memory will be forever cherished by; his father Demond J. Gladney Sr.; his daughter Da'Miyah; his sisters, Diamond Gladney, Daysia Scott and Fatimah Brown; his brothers, Da'Quan Gladney-Davis, Terry Brown Jr.; his grandparents; Linda Gladney- Davis Mark Davis and Cheryl Jamison; his aunts and uncles, Tamika Peoples, Terron Gladney, Marquis Davis, Mykal Hairston, Jon Jamison and Gerald Peoples; his dearest friends Pone, Riley, Desirae, Jarvis, Binky and a host of additional family and friends.
