

Demond Antonio Winston

June 11, 1983 - February 20, 2025

Demond Antonio Winston, born June 11, 1983, in Richmond, VA, to Eva L. Winston and Harold A. Durant, passed away February 20, 2025. Known as “HardRock (Rock)” for his spirited nature, Demond overcame many hardships, including the loss of his mother, younger brother, younger sister, and beloved nephew.

A 2001 graduate of Highland Springs High School, he became an electrician and entrepreneur, founding Eva Logistics, LLC, Big A1 Power Washing, and hosting the “Morals>Money” podcast. Demond was deeply committed to community service and served as Director of Community Relations for “1 Luv, Now Let’s Talk About It (THRN).”

He leaves to cherish his memory, his son Er’Rek Love, father Harold Durant, five sisters, three devoted Mechole Rajab, Shermika Winston and Seven Anderson, three brothers, one devoted Rushard Anderson, paternal grandmother, Mable Williams, two aunts, one devoted Delphine “Auntee” Anderson, six uncles and many other family members, including nieces, nephews, cousins and lifelong friends.

Demond will be remembered for his infectious smile, humor, warmth, and the love he gave to everyone he met.

*I'm truly missing you nephew! I wish I could send 1 more text/message to you! We had a lunch date planned but we never set an exact date! I'm still going to have that lunch date in your honor, just me and you! Whenever we talked, our conversations ALWAYS ended with an I love you or I love you more! I truly can't believe that you're gone, but you were definitely too good for this place! Although it hurts so bad,I know that this is the Lord's will and who am I to question it! I love and miss you so much nephew!
Love Always & Forever

Rock, when I think of you, I recall your enquiring mind at an young age. The smile that could light up a room and desire to help where you were able. To me, we were most similar in our love for family. No one expected your departure to be so soon. When God calls us to rest, anything not finished will remain that way. You loved and were loved cuz. Take your rest and we will see you in the morning. We leave you in God's loving care cuz.

“ You were family that's all I know. When ever I came to get my car done you would smile that beautiful smile and say hey Auntie I got you. I would fuss when you change spots because I couldn't find you. But that smile made me not be too mad. I'm going to miss you nephew and tell my boy I'm missing him. Love you Hardrock always
