

Denise Coleman

December 15, 1955 - April 30, 2003

Denise H. Coleman, daughter of Paulette Stevenson and the late Harold Griffin, was born on December 15, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She received her childhood education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Once she graduated, she earned a degree in Nursing and worked as a RN for Elizabeth Konntz for several years. Anyone who knew Denise, "Niecy", as she was known to everyone, knew that she definitely loved life and lived it to the fullest. She leaves behind to forever celebrate her life: her fiancé', Curtis Johnson; three sons, Jermair Eugene Coleman, Keith Barnes and Kevin Hillen; her mother, Paulette Stevenson; her sisters, Umillas McIntyre, Sharron Hughes and Marsia Rodriques-Harrison; her brothers, Huey "Eddie" Bowman and Lamont Alexander (brother, Tyrone McIntyre preceded her in death); three grandchildren, Jermair Coleman Jr., Sadasia Coleman and Demonte Coleman; and a host to nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. TO MY DAUGHTER DENISE From your troubles and worries, You're now set free; God decided to take you home, So I know you're resting in peace. Love always,
Your Mother
