

Denise Ellerbe

June 9, 1956 - January 10, 2021

Denise Ellerbe (Niecey) daughter of the late Andrew and Joyce Ellerbe, was born on June 9, 1956 at University Hospital, in Baltimore, Maryland. Niecey attended Baltimore, Maryland. Niecey attended Baltimore City Public School Upon completion, she developed a love for cooking. She worked for Johnston Square Elementary School, and spent many years working for Correctional Food Service. Niecey had an unmatched talent in the kitchen. Said talent afforded her the opportunity to cook for the Olympics.

She definitely earned bragging rights after conquering such an amazing opportunity. One of her favorite things to cook was seafood. She sometimes traveled to Crisfield, to visit family and on her way back, she would shop for some of the best crabmeat to bring back to Baltimore. During the holiday's there was never a debate as to who would make the sweet potato pies.

Niecey made the BEST sweet potato pies. In between time, it wasn't unusual for her to call and say "I ordered a prime rib, I'm going to call you when I cook it" She loved to cook and loved for family and friends to come break bread at her table. Niecey and her eldest son Eugene often shared the kitchen. They shared a love for cooking and dining together. On football days, she often rivaled with her youngest son, Jamel, as she was a devoted Baltimore Ravens fan and he loved the Pittsburgh Steelers. Needless to say, game day was a fun day!

Denise Ellerbe was called home on Sunday, January 10, 2021. She was preceded in death by her son Kareem Preston Anthony Green; brothers, Leroy and Dana Ellerbe (her twin); and her four-legged daughter; Muffin

She leaves to cherish her memory; two sons, Eugene Harris; and Jamel Green (fianc'e Monique Claybourne); brother, Talmadge Ellerbe; sister, Brenda Ellerbe; grandchildren, Devon, Jawaan, Samirah, Kareem, Quaron, Nassir, and Princess, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Neicy I don't know where to start I loved you for over 25 years. We've laughed together cried together shared some very deep conversations with each other about everything in our life. I'm sooo angry because no one told me you passed away that hurts me really bad . Everyone know how much we loved each other . We would talk for hours about Kareem how we miss him . How proud we are of Mel and constant prayer for Choc . You were my baby people didn't understand us/our relationship. Babe I talk to every day and night tell my son (Kareem) and my brother Ralph I love them . I love you Denise forever. Always your Everett 🥺
