

Denise G. Stanley

March 17, 1962 - August 31, 2004

Denise Germaine Stanley, daughter of the late Norman Stanley and Hattie M. Day, was born on March 17, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Tuesday, August 31, 2004 at the Joseph Richie Center. After a lengthy illness, she received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. "Niecey," as she was affectionately known, had several jobs working as a waitress, barmaid and secretary. Niecey was very friendly, always smiling. She loved her four children. She leaves to mourn: three sons, James Laprade, Keith Laprade and Brian Eggleston; one daughter, Brianetta Eggleston, all of Baltimore; five sisters, Theresa Johnson, JoAnne Johnson, Sheila Johnson, Earlene Bushrod and Colette Day; two brothers, Steven Johnson and Alexander Day; seven grandchildren, Keith Jr., Kiara Marqual, James Jr., Daiquon, Marlene and Ayanna; two brothers-in-law, Albert Gibson and Harry Bushrod Jr.; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the Family of Denise G. Stanley: I am so sorry to learn about your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It's at times like this that we need comfort. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises a "resurrection" into a beautiful "paradise". {John 5: 28 & 29, Luke 23: 43} Yes, your beloved one will not be forgotten, for Almighty God has promised and he "cannot lie"-Titus 1: 2.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
