

Denise Patricia Parker

October 8, 1962 - January 30, 2006

“The highest honor has been bestowed upon you because your heart was pure and to God you were true. Another Angel has now received her wings”. Denise P. Parker was known favorably as Niece. She was born to the late Florine and James Randall on October 8, 1962. Three minutes after her twin sister Deborah. Niece was called home to glory on January 30, 2006. During her early childhood she accepted Christ as her personal savior. She was baptized at Zion Hill Baptist Church in Gloucester, Va. Niece was a member of Simmons Memorial Baptist Church, until she later joined Browns Memorial Baptist Church. Niece received her education in the Baltimore City public school system. She also attended The Community College of Baltimore, and retired from the University of Baltimore. In August 1982, Denise met her childhood sweetheart David Parker. They united in marriage on August 12, 1989 and from this union of eighteen years were born one daughter, Keira Parker. Although Niece was born in Baltimore, Virginia was always her home away from home. She loved and cared about everyone who crossed her path. Denise had a smile that would light up the darkest room, especially when she was with her daughter Keira. She loved to sing and have her family over for gatherings. She enjoyed spending time with her nieces and nephews. And Oh! What fun she had being a twin. Even though Niece was the youngest, she took care of her sisters and brothers as if she was the oldest. Denise will be missed by all who knew her.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Denise. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that the holy scriptures can be a source of comfort. John 11:25 expresses a resurrection hope that we can look forward to in the future. Please read Jesus Christ expressions about the resurrection at John 11:20-27. May you all continue to rely and find comfort from the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My very sincere condolences to your family for your loss. I know how much death hurts a family, because it certainly has hurt mine in times past. When we lose a loved one it's like an unreality. We just can't believe that we can't talk to that person anymore, or see their beautiful smile anymore. Sometimes we say, if only I could see her just one more time. What comforts my family at such times is God's promise of the resurrection. Because he loves us so very much, he doesn't want us to grieve in this way, that is why long ago he brought about a purpose to end all sorrow, sickness, and death. At Isaiah 25:8 he promises to swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." I pray you find comfort in his word, and a sure hope of seeing Denise again.##imported-begin##R

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible gives us a wonderful hope of our loved ones returning to life in a peaceful world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. Revelation 21:4 states- "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes;and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on this loving hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
