

Dennis Dixon

October 17, 1950 - October 14, 2013

DENNIS DIXON, the sixth child born to the late Edward “Suitcase” Dixon and Priscilla “Mother” Dixon, was born on October 17, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. Dennis departed this life at Gilchrist Hospice Home, after battling lengthy illnesses, on October 12, 2013.

“Roach” or “Roach Butta-Fouco,” as he was affectionately known by family and close friends, received his education in Baltimore City public schools. He held various jobs in the Baltimore area throughout his years here.

Dennis was an outgoing and fun-loving person. He enjoyed writing/creating poems, being involved in family gatherings and hanging out with close childhood/life-long friends. Some of Dennis’ hobbies included playing cards, taking trips, taking photos, listening and dancing to many types of music. Telling jokes was his thing and he had a smile/laugh that could light up a room. Dennis was a great and loyal friend to all who knew him. He enjoyed collecting hats, clothes and shoes and before falling ill took great pride in his personal appearance, which often times he captured in photographs.

Dennis was preceded in death by his mother and father, Edward and Priscilla Dixon; a brother, William Thompson Jr. and one nephew, William Thompson III.

He leaves to cherish his memory: four sisters, Ann, Trecie, Lorraine and Christina; three brothers, Michael "Turtle," Steve and Donald; eight nieces, Cynthia, Michelle, LaChone, Sherrell, Samone, Margo, LaToya and Natasha; five nephews, Lil Donald, Lamont, Steven, Malcolm and Carlos; twenty-seven great-nieces and great-nephews; three very special friends, Sylvester, Bobby and Beverly; and a host of other family and friends.

“ To the family of Dennis Dixon:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I would like to extend my condolences to the Dixon family. May you find solace in John5:28-29 and Revelation21:4 that tells us of a time when there will be no more sickness and death and when or loved ones who have fallen asleep in death will be restored to perfect life in a paradise on earth. Continue to pray to our loving Heavenly Father for strength and look to God's word for comfort an hope. With deepest sympathy.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
