“ I would like to express my sympathy to Mr. Lindsey's family and friends. The loss of one so dearly loved can be very painful that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then, Daniel 12:2 states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie. - Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again since God put time indefinite into our hearts (Eccl. 3:11). The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. According to the Bible all suffering is soon to end. Our enemies: sin, sickness and death will be destroyed. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares: "There is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from that wonderful hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for that loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##
