

Dennis Lavon Powell

March 31, 1955 - April 3, 2004

Dennis L. Powell, son of the late June Dennis and Annie Ruth Powell was born on May 31, 1955 in Lumberton, NC. He was the fourth of ten children. One of whom preceded him in death, Diane Mc Collum. However, he was raised in Baltimore, MD by his late aunt and uncle (Estelle and Thomas Chavis). He entered eternal rest on April 3, 2004. He graduated from Baltimore City College in 1974. After graduation, he entered a training program to become a Merchant Seaman. He also worked at the Wallpaper Factory and Coca-Cola Bottling Company. Dennis, better known as "Newt" was loved by everyone that met him. He had a smile that would last a lifetime. He also had a passion for chess and loved to sing and play his music. One could hear him singing from one corner of Biddle Street to the next. When asked if he sought the Lord for strength during his time of troubles, he replied: I pray early in the morning and before I go to sleep everyday. Therefore, we know he trusted Jesus as his Lord and Savior. He loved life to the fullest and fought a good fight. He leaves to cherish his memories: one son, Dennis Powell; one daughter, Shazelle Powell; one grandson, James McKeithan, three sisters, Aletha Harlee, Debra Powell, Denise Powell; five brothers, Phillip, Gregory, Michael, Donald and Darryl Powell; seven aunts, Bertha McCollum, Annie Mae Moody, Luretha McCall, Sarah Harlee, Mae Harlee, Alice Harlee of Baltimore, Maryland and Leola Mc Nair of Maxton, NC; one uncle, John Walter Harlee; two special brothers, Purnell Wilkes and Daniel Carter, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
