“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible offers much comfort and hope.(Romans 15:4) Found in the Bible are some 9 resurrection accounts. They are a testimony of what will happen on earth again.For example at Luke 7:12-16 Christ Jesus raised to life the son of a widow.He did this to show what he will do for many in the very near future. Jesus said at John 5:28,29: "Don't be surprised at this. A time is coming when ...people that are dead and in their graves will hear his voice. Then they will come out of their graves.The people that did good in life will rise and have life forever."{Easy-To-Read Version} May you receive much comfort, hope and strength as you read and ponder over this loving hope found in the Bible.(Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:29 and Matthew 5:5)##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. It has been some months since your loved one died, but I know the pain hasn't completely gone away. It never does, we never forget our loved ones. I just wanted to leave you with a word of comfort when you are feeling down. In bible we find many comforting scriptures to help us to cope with such tragedies as death. Remember this verse at Rev 21,4 which says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. also many scriptures speak of a resurrection of the dead, which will restore life back to those who have died. Acts 24,15, and john 5:28,29 speaks of this wonderful hope. Please read Psalm 37:10,11 and 2nd peter 3:13 which talks about a new earth in which righteous and peaceful conditions will prevail. I hope that these wonderful scriptural promises from God help you to cope, and give you much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Although time has a way of healing all pain and sorrow, it helps to know that others care. Words of sympathy help a lot but they don't stop the pain, the God of all comfort has promised that in time the memories will continue without the pain, call on this God of comfort he will listen to you he will be there for you (2Corinthian 1:3-4) My deepest sympathy is with all of you.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##
